

Morgan Barney – Board of Directors, Washington Youth Academy Foundation

Morgan has been a member of the board of directors of the Washington Youth Academy Foundation since 2014. He was a mentor for a Youth Academy graduate and finds it brings nothing but positive opportunity for former high school dropouts improving the person and the community.

Morgan's professional background is in the field of finance and banking. He has worked in multiple positions for various financial institutions. He currently provides consulting and analytics in sourcing and payables for large corporations, universities, and federal and local government organizations.
